School-Based Program Manager

About Us

Girls Inc. of Alameda County’s mission is to inspire all girls to be strong, smart, and bold. Since our founding in 1958, we have programs that support the unique needs of girls aged 5-18, and, starting in the 1990’s, to design and deliver programs using an equity lens, serving those from some of County’s least resourced communities, primarily in and around Oakland. Through a K-12 Program Continuum, we empower girls by equipping them to navigate gender, economic, and racial barriers and grow into healthy, educated, and independent adults. All programs are developmentally appropriate, supporting girls’ changing needs as they grow. From literacy interventions in elementary school and exciting hands-on STEM and STEAM projects in middle school to building leadership skills and college readiness in high school, Girls Inc. girls receive the support and the opportunities they need to thrive. Girls Inc. of Alameda County’s operating budget is $7M with 100 staff in our downtown Oakland Simpson Center for Girls and in more than 15 schools and satellite centers across Alameda County.

About the Role

The School-Based Program Manager is responsible for overseeing elementary, middle and high school programming. This role must have the ability to motivate, and the passion to inspire others to deliver a model in person or virtual program for school age youth in grades K-12. The manager will oversee literacy, STEM and enrichment programs that builds self-esteem and achieves grade-level reading, as well as youth development programs designed to increase the physical fitness, life skills, self-esteem, familial engagement and academic success of participants. Above all, this person must understand barriers to equity for girls of color in Oakland and have the ability to inspire staff to develop in areas of facilitation, lesson planning, group and behavior management and relationship building.

Job Summary
